Fun Facts

Prior to the first official NHL® All-Star Game in 1947, the concept of pitting the NHL’s elite against each other was used in three games staged to benefit the families of former NHL stars Ace Bailey (1934), Howie Morenz (1937) and Babe Siebert (1939).

The 2018 NHL® All-Star marks the second-time NHL All-Star activities will take place in Tampa Bay. The Lightning previously hosted the NHL All-Star Game in 1999, when Wayne Gretzky earned MVP honors in his final All-Star appearance.

Gordie Howe has played in the most career NHL All-Star Games. “Mr. Hockey” appeared in 23 All-Star contests, registering 10 goals and 19 points.

In 1947, the first official NHL® All-Star Game called for the defending Stanley Cup® Champions to play against a selection of All-Stars from the other five teams. Over the course of 61 NHL All-Star Games, the format has changed to pit First Team All-Stars vs. Second Team All-Stars: East Division vs. West Division; Campbell Conference vs. Wales Conference; Eastern Conference vs. Western Conference; North America vs. the World; a player Fantasy Draft, where All-Star players themselves determined the composition of each team; and most recently a three-game 3-on-3 tournament between divisions.

Victor Hedman and Nikita Kucherov represented the Tampa Bay Lightning at the 2017 NHL All-Star Game in Los Angeles.

Wayne Gretzky is the all-time leader in career All-Star Game points with 25 (13-12-25 in 18 GP).
